Wednesday, October 25 @ 4:00 p.m.

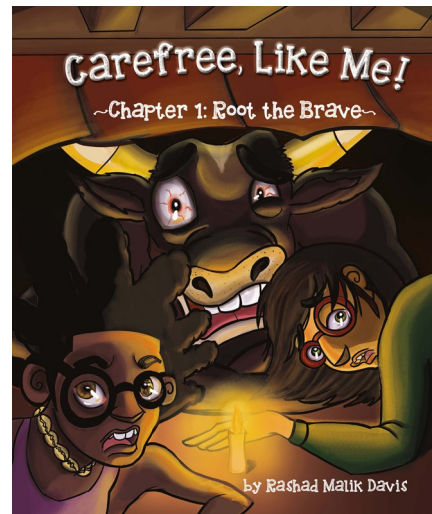

What happens when two best friends, Amir and Neena, get bored? They travel to another dimension of course! Will they be able to help King Root the Brave conquer his fears, or will they be stuck in a new world forever? Get ready for the start of an adventure that you'll never forget!

Author/Illustrator Rashad Malik Davis will be talking about his journey of becoming a full-time freelance illustrator and reading from his first picture book,

Carefree, Like Me!

For kids 5 - 11 years old

Author/illustrator Rashad Malik Davis can most often be found sketching, writing, or engaging in excited dialogue about the magic and beauty - both seen and unseen- of our diverse world. Rashad and this first picture book of his has been featured on: News12 New Jersey with host Della Crews for her NJ Spotlight Segment, in the Lawrence Gazette, Princeton TV with host Sharon Levy, Trenton 365 with Jacque Howard and numerous radio stations as well.
